spending money

You will also need spending money to cover drinks, lunch, souvenirs, incidentals under £10, meals and camping when the group isn't with the truck on the off chance you don't participate in an overnight safari such as the Serengeti, and also if you wish to upgrade from camping. We recommend taking £320 to £400 for this safari.

what you pay

£520 PLUS the Kitty $462 paid in $US in Africa

The Zambezi

On the edge

The price covers

- A fully equipped and diesel expedition truck/vehicle including all camping and cooking gear, a fridge, gas cooker, tents, sleeping mats etc
- Services of a driver and safari leader
- The ongoing advice and back up from The Absolute Team
- All road tolls and taxes are paid.

The kitty covers

- Ngorongoro Crater • Mikumi National Park • South Luangwa National Park (or alternative) • Maasai village

Breakfast and dinner whilst with the truck, some barbecues and a village meal. Camping and accommodation whilst with the truck.

Kitty is a group fund paid locally on day one in USD cash. Note access to some parks particularly Luangwa can be seasonal due to road conditions.

Guided game drives across the sweeping plains of the Serengeti and into Ngorongoro Crater, with the chance to view the Big Five and more - lion, giraffe, elephant, black and white rhino, hippo, crocodile, zebra, wildebeest, cape buffalo, numerous species of antelope, as well as pink flamingo, and with a little luck cheetah and the elusive leopard.

Visiting a traditional Maasai village with its mud and cow dung huts, and markets and townships from East to Southern Africa with time for adventure sports - white water rafting, gorge swinging, bungee and 'Flights of the Angels' over the Falls.

Barter for African carvings in Malawi's craft markets, discover the origins of man at Olduvai and the chance glimpse of the snow peaks of Kilimanjaro on our journey to bustling Dar Es Salaam. Feel the Indian Ocean lap at your feet, wander the narrow alleys of traditional Stone Town and enjoy seafood delicacies in the fish markets. Snorkel and scuba dive in the crystal clear waters off Zanzibar, staying in cottages on palm fringed white beaches. By Lake Malawi, Africa's warm heart, enjoy a local meal with traditional dancing by a village fire, and visit the kids in the local school.

Walk with tame lion through the African bush and at your journey's end spot game at sunset by the water's edge on the Zambezi sundowner cruise at the majestic Victoria Falls, one of the natural wonders of the world.

Please note this safari can finish in Vic Falls on either the Livingstone or the Victoria Falls side of the Zambezi River. When budgeting be aware there can be extra visa and transfer costs incurred if you need to cross the border to fly out. Feel free to contact us for further information.
